LAND HEIGHTS.

The mean height of land above sea level, according to the most scientific geographers, is 2,250 feet. The mean depth of the ocean is 12,480 feet. Only 2 per cent. of the sea (oceans in general) is included inside a depth of 500 fathoms, while 77 per cent. lies between 500 and 3,000 fathoms. If the land were filled into the hollows of the seas, water would roll over the earth's crust to a uniform depth of two miles,

THOMAS COOKSEY WARD.

Death of the Oldest Man in the State of Maryland.

Thomas Cooksey Ward died Angnst 11, 1903, at his home, Charlotte Hall, St. Mary's county, Md., aged nearly 110 years. He was the oldest man in Maryland and his age was a fact well anthenticated. He was born November 25, 1793, on his father's farm, near Newport, Charles connty. His father was Joseph Ward and his mother Mary Cooksey. Almost his entire life, with the exception of a few years, dnring which he lived in Baltimore, Mr. Ward spent in Southern Maryland, and he was knowr to almost everyone in the lower counties. He was of medium height and until age began its inroads his frame was that of a sturdy, healthy man who delighted in outdoor life.

Simple habits and ontdoor life were always given by him as the reason for his long life. He loved the country and classed city life as artificial and nnsatisfying. During middle life he resided in Baltimore for several years, holding a position as State tobacco inspector. He was first appointed by Gov. Grason in 1838, next by Gov. Francis Thomas in 1841 and again by Governor Lowe in 1850. He was glad to get back to his farm. Abont six years before his death he paid his last visit to Baltimore and went home almost in horror of the things he saw. Trolley cars and high buildings and all the other advances of the half a century since he made his home in town were too much for him.

It is stated by Dr. J. S. Billings in his article on Longevity, pnblished in Johnson's Encyclopædia, that "no satisfactory proof exists that any one in England or the United States has ever reached the age of 110 years. The longevity of man is nsually given as 100 years, but there are several well anthenticated cases in which it has been between 100 and 108 years." Mr. Ward of St. Mary's connty, Md., whose death is mentioned above, was within 3 months and 14 days of being 110 years of age.

Thomas Parr, known to history as "Old Parr," who died in London in 1635, was reputed to be 152 years of age, and as snch was introduced at conrt shortly before his death, by the Earl of Arnndel. Dr. Billings discredits the claim of "Old Parr," and that made for the Countess of Desmond of 145 years. He says:

"The greatest age ever attained by a hnman being in an authenticated case is that of a man named Rives, who was living at Tarbes, France, in Jnne, 1888, and whose baptismal certificate stated that he was born in Angust, 1770, thus making him out to be 118 years old.

MARYLAND COLONIAL SAUSAGE.

The following recipe for making sausage dates from 1740 and is followed in many families to this day on the Eastern Shore of Maryland and in other parts of the State:

To 50 pounds of fat and lean fresh pork (three parts lean to one part fat) mix common table salt 12 ounces; saltpeter, 1½ ounces; dry powdered sage, 6 ounces; ground black pepper, 4 ounces; ground red pod pepper, ½ ounce. Mix thoroughly and grind fine. After grinding mix it again by using paddles, forks or the hands. Some persons prefer more lean than three parts—this can only be decided upon after trying it. This sausage may be kept a year in muslin bags and in casing. It will not spoil or cause indigestion.

LEAP YEAR.

The year 1904 is leap year, the first of the 25 Bisextile years to occur in this, the 20th century of the Christian era. The year 1900, which rounded up the 19th century, was not a leap year. In explanation of the conditions which caused a lapse of a leap year for 1900, in spite of the fact that the number was devisible by four with out a remainder, it should be stated that when the Julian calendar was introduced the equinox fell on March 25. At the time of the Council of Nice, held in 325 A. D., it fell on the 21st, and when the reformation of the calendar was made, in 1582, it had retrograded to the 11th of March. In order to restore the equinox to its former term, Pope Gregory XIII directed 10 days to be suppressed in the calendar, and as the error of the Julian intercalation was found to amount to three days in 400 years, he ordered the intercalation to be omitted in all the centurial years excepting those which are multiples of 400. According to the Gregorian rule of intercalation, therefore, every year whose number is divisable by four without a remainder is a leap year, with the exception of the centurial years, which are only leap years when divisible by 400, or by four, after omitting the two ciphers. Thus 1700 and 1800 were common years, and 1900 also was not a leap year, while 2000, 2400 and so on will be leap years.

The mean length of the solar year is found to be 365.2422 days, or 365 days 5 hours 48 minutes and 46 seconds. Now, the Gregorian rule gives 97 intercalations in 400 years; 400 years, therefore, contain 365 days multiplied by 400 plus 97; that is, 146,097 days, and consequently one year contains 365 days 5 hours 49 minutes and 12 seconds. This exceeds the true solar year by 26 seconds, which amounts to a day in 3,323 years. It is, perhaps, unnecessary to make any formal provision against an error which can only happen after so long a period of time, but as 3,323 differs so little from 4,000, it has been proposed to correct the Gregorian rule by making the year 4,000 and all its multiples common years. With this correction the rule of intercalation is as follows:

Every year the number of which is divisible by 4 is a leap year excepting the last year of each century, which is a leap year only when the number of the century is divisible hy 400, but 4,000 and its multiples, 8,000, 12,000, 16,000, etc., are common years.

FOUR KINDS OF YEARS.

There are four kinds of years for the people who live on the earth.

The lunar year, the time required for moon travels around the earth twelve times. This is 354 days 8 hours 48 minutes long, and is the year of the Jews. It is 11 days shorter than the solar year. To make good this defect the Hebrews add a thirteenth month of 30 days every third year, hut even then they are still three days behind solar time.

The solar year is the time in which the earth completes one journey around the sun. This is 365 days 5 hours 48 minutes 49 seconds long.

The sidereal year, the time required for the earth to travel around the sun and return to the same position with respect to the sun and a given fixed star, is 365 days 6 hours 9 minutes 9 seconds.

The anomalistic year is the period in which the earth revolves from perihelion, the nearest point to the sun, back to perihelion again. This year consists of 365 days 6 hours 13 minutes 49 seconds.

DIVISION OF TIME.

There are two kinds of time—clock or mean time and apparent or sun time. Clock time is always right, while sun time varies every day; the sun very seldom heing on the meridian at twelve o'clock. solar day differing in length, owing to the ellipticity of the earth's orbit, etc.; but a mean solar day, as recorded by clock time, is twenty-four hours long.

An astronomical day begins at noon, twelve hours after the heginning of the civil day, and is counted from the first to the twenty-fourth hour. A civil day commences at midnight, and is counted from the first to the twelfth hour. A nautical day is counted as a civil day, but commences, like an astronomical day, at noon.

A calendar month varies from 28 to 31 days. A mean lunar month is 29 days 12 hours 44 minutes 2 seconds and a small fraction. A Solar year, or the transition from one vernal equinox to another, consists of 365.24244 solar days, or 365 days 5 hours 48 minutes and 49,536 seconds. A Julian year is 365 days; a Gregorian year is 365.2425 days. Every fourth year, or leap year, has 366 days.

THE HAIRS OF THE HEAD.

Light-haired persons average, it is said, 140,000 to 165,000 hairs; dark-haired persons about 105,000 and red-haired persons only 30,000. This is, no doubt, only a general approximation, since not all light hair is fine and not all red hair coarse, and there are many persons with much thinner hair than others; to say nothing of the large and honorable class of baldheads.

WEATHER FLAG SIGNALS.

No. 1, white flag, indicates clear or fair weather.

No. 2, blue flag, indicates rain or snow.

No. 3, a black triangular flag, always refers to temperature. When placed above the white or blue flags, it indicates warmer weather, and when placed below them, it indicates colder weather.

Thus, flags displayed as shown on the margin would indicate "warmer, fair weather, followed by rain or snow," the triangular flag at the top meaning warmer; the white, fair; the blue, rain or snow. When the triangular flag is not shown, the indications are that the temperature will remain stationary, or that it will not vary 5 degrees from the temperature of the same hour of the preceding day.

No. 4, white flag, with black square in the centre, indicates the approach of a sudden and decided fall in temperature. This signal is usually ordered at least twenty-four hours in advance of the cold wave. It is not displayed unless a temperature of 45 degrees or less is expected.

No. 5 indicates local rains. It consists of two horizontal parallel bars of white and blue, the white uppermost.

The storm signal is a red flag with a black square in the centre. When displayed it indicates that a storm of marked violence is expected. Pennants displayed with the storm signal indicate the direction of the wind: Red, easterly (from north-east to south); white, westerly (from south-west to north). The pennant above the flag indicates that the wind is expected to blow from the northerly quadrant; below, from the southerly quadrant.

HURRICANE SIGNAL.

The hurricane signal consists of two red flags with black centers, displayed one above the other. The flags are the same as those used for the distinctive storm signal, the pennants being omitted. The hurricane signal is used to announce the expected approach of tropical hurricanes, and also of severe and dangerous storms, which occasionally move across the lakes and the northern Atlantic coast.

Shipmasters are requested, whenever they see hurricane signals displayed at any of these points, to hoist their own flags, and they should as soon as possible thereafter seek information from the nearest Weather Bureau office as to the location and probable duration of the storm. This information will guide them as to the time their signals should remain displayed, otherwise the flags, as a rule, should be lowered within twenty-four hours from the time of hoisting.

COLD WAVE AND FROST.

The display of the cold wave flag (white flag with a black square in center) indicates that there will be a sudden and decided fall in temperature, amounting to 16 degrees or more, depending on the locality of the particular station.

The warnings are usually issued for a period of twenty-four hours in advance of the anticipated cold wave or frost.

THE ZODIAC.

The apparent path of the sun in the heavens is along an ecliptic, which is inclined 23° 27′ to the celestial equator. A belt 16° wide, 8° on each side of the ecliptic, within which are comprised the path of the moon and all of the planets know to the ancients, is known as the zodiac. This belt is divided into the twelve signs of the zodiac, each 30° in length. The first of these signs begins at the point when the sun's path crosses the equator (when moving north in the spring) and is known as the sign of Aries, and the point of crossing is known as the vernal or spring equinox. The point when the sun's path crosses the equator when returning south in the fall is known as the autumnal equinox, and is the beginning of the sign Libra.

The zodiacal signs and the times when the sun enters each are as follows:

THE HEAVIEST RAINFALL.

The annual rainfall on the Khasia Hills, to the northeast of Calcutta, amounts to some 600 in., 500 in. of which fall in seven months, during the southwest monsoon. It is undoubtedly the wettest spot on the globe. As many as 150 in. have been registered in five consecutive days, or an average of 30 in. a day. This astonishing amount is due to the abruptness of the mountains which face the Bay of Bengal, from which they are separated by 200 miles of low swamps and marshes.

VEGETARIANS.

At least seven-tenths of the population of the globe never eat flesh meat. In India, China, Japan and adjacent countries there are about 400,000,000 people—strong, active, healthy, long-lived—who eat no flesh meat. In Europe are the peasants of Russia, the Corsican farmers, the Scotch Highlanders and other vegetarian peoples, well developed physically and capable of great endurance.

WASHINGTON CITY PUBLIC LIBRARY.

The Washington Public Library Building, at the Capital of the United States, the gift of Mr. Andrew Carnegie, was dedicated January 7, 1903. President Theodore Roosevelt and Mr. Carnegie both made addresses on the occasion. What Mr. Carnegie said was particularly interesting as throwing light on his idea of benefiting his fellow-men, and the way in which he desired to do the work. He said he had given chiefly within the past two years 730 library buildings. During the month of July last 276 applications for library buildings were received by him from all parts of the English-speaking world. When he arrived in New York in December, 1902, from Europe he found awaiting him applications for 450 additional buildings. On January 7, 1903, he had on hand 385 new applications, making in all under consideration more than 800, "the great majority of which," he said, "will no doubt be given." He added: "I am in the library manufacturing business, and beg to be allowed to concentrate my time upon it until it is filled. This is not charity, this is not philanthropy; it is the people helping themselves by taxing themselves.

"Free libraries maintained by the people are cradles of democracy, and their spread can never fail to extend and strengthen the democratic idea, the equality of the citizen, the royalty of man. They are emphatically fruits of the true American ideal."

After expressing the belief in the good motives of people who gave for charity he said that most of it was "a mere pruning of the branches of the upas tree." "We must get to the roots of the poverty, the misery and crime," he said, "which still darken human society, but which, let us gratefully remember, become less and less under the great law of evolution.

"The submerged tenth, which in the census we designate as delinquents, do not appear to be properly the objects of private beneficence. These should be the care of the State. The habitual criminal, drinker, loafer, needing the necessaries of human life, should be cared for, being human, by the State, town or community as a whole, and, some day when we have gone farther in the path of genuine civilization, though these will still be clothed, fed, housed, nursed, educated and reformed as far as possible, they will be isolated from their fellows as unworthy to wear the revered name of father or mother.

"I rejoice for my part that I have found a field which still occupies my thoughts and my time, and keeps me, although retired from business, as busy a man, I think, as I ever was in business, which always was more of a recreation than a burden. It was easy compared with the life I now lead, mere holiday-making in comparison—verily, the way of the distributor is hard. I now realize in all its hitherto unknown intensity the strenuous life. It has a new meaning to me since I retired, but I dread still more the coming of the day when I shall have to look out for new fields for distribution, for we have now, so to say, stereotyped library-giving. It will be a great plunge.

"Between 400 and 500 letters a day reach my secretaries, and most of them also promptly reach the waste-basket. Fortunately many are written in languages which my secretaries cannot understand. These are favorably received because they give no trouble. All conceivable and inconceivable suggestions are made, some of which they show me now and then, which bring to mind that the humorist has well said—one thing which wealth does which nothing else could do so well, it develops the fools. A man who has surplus wealth and escapes making a fool of himself once a week or so, in view of all the temptations he has to resist and all the foolish things he is urged to do, should be considered at least above the average in wisdom."

Mr. Carnegie, after the dedication of the Washington Library, said that he was so well pleased with the use made of his gift of $350,000 and the provision for the support of the library that he would donate another $350,000 for the erection of branch libraries on the same condition as the original gift, namely, that the city provides the sites and support of the libraries.

The Washington City Public Library Building is an imposing structure of white marble. It stands in the center of Mount Vernon Square east and west, but approaches at its rear close to the north line of the park, placing considerable park space south of the building and enhancing its architectural effect as it is approached from the main entrance.

It consists of a rectangular central pavilion, 111 feet 5 inches long and 90 feet 10 inches broad, with equal wings, east and west, respectively, each 63 feet 6 inches long and 54 feet 10 inches broad. The structure thus has a maximum width at the basement of 219 feet 10 inches at its front on the east and west line and a maximum depth of 111 feet 5 inches in its central pavilion on the north and south line.

On January 9, 1903, the announcement was made that an offer of Mr. Carnegie to give $1,500,000 for the erection of thirty branch library buildings in Philadelphia had been formally accepted by the trustees of the Philadelphia Free Library.

LOU DILLON'S RECORD.

Trotting a Mile in Two Minutes, August 24, 1903.

At Readville, Mass., August 24, 1903, the chestnut mare Lou Dillon, driven by Millard Sanders, trotted a mile in 2 minutes, making the fastest time ever trotted by any horse in the world.

Lou Dillon is owned by Mr. C. K. G. Billings, who gave $12,700 for her.

Her time by quarters was as follows:

First quarter, 30¼ sec.

Second quarter, 30½ sec.; total, 1 min. ¾ sec.

Third quarter, 30¼ sec.; total, 1 min. 31 sec.

Fourth quarter, 29 sec.; total 2 min.

Lou Dillon is a dark chestnut mare with a white hind foot and white ankle on the left side, a star in her forehead and a faint white tinge between her nostrils. She was 5 years old; 15.1 hands high and weighed 804 pounds. Her action is extremely low and sweeping. All her shoes were not much heavier than one of the front shoes worn by Maud S. Lou Dillon carries five-ounce plates forward and three ounces on each hind foot, with a piece of leather between shoe and foot to break the concussion. She was hitched to a light sulky and wore a two-minute harness without tugs. She wore an open bridle without a check and a martingale hung from her nose band. She had light protection quarter bell felt boots in front and light shin and pastern boots of the same material behind.

Horse breeders and racers had been trying for many years to develop a trotter which would be able to make a mile in two minutes. When the chestnut mare Lou Dillon reached the coveted two-minute mark at Readville, August 24, 1903, she dethroned the mighty Cresceus, whose record of 2.02¼ was considered "unbeatable" by many experts.

CRESCEUS' GREAT FEAT.

At Wichita, Kansas, October 19, 1903, Cresceus, the great stallion and the world's champion trotter, driven by his owner, breeder and trainer, George H. Ketcham, of Toledo, Ohio, trotted a mile in 1 minute 59¾ seconds, making the fastest time ever trotted by any horse in the world.

Cresceus won the world's championship on July 26, 1901, at Cleveland, Ohio, going the mile in 2.02¾. This record stood until August 24, 1903, when Lou Dillon reduced the time for a mile to two minutes at Readville, Mass., and became the champion.

Major Delmar, a gelding, on September 25, 1903, at Empire City track, New York, trotted a mile in two minutes.

Cresceus' time by quarters in his world-beating performance of October 19, 1903, was:

First Quarter—30 seconds.
Half—59¾ seconds.
Three-quarters—1 minute 30 seconds.
Mile—1 minute 59¾ seconds.

BORIC ACID.

Boric acid used as a preservative of meat does not prevent putrefaction entirely; it conceals putrefaction to a certain extent. No antiseptics are good preservatives. Therefore meat should be prepared aseptically, not antiseptically. No bacteria can be found in cooked meat. But boric acid is a poison and becomes dangerous when present in very large quantities.

CARE OF THE EYES.

Too strong a light is as great an evil as one too dim, and when reading, writing or sewing the light, whether natural or artificial, should come from the left. It should never fall full in the face, but upon the work.

Daylight is best when not sifted through curtains, and artificial light should be clear, steady, soft and white. The craze for colored lamp shades has injured many eyes.

The eyes should never be steadily employed by artificial light, especially after a day's hard use, and to strain them in fading twilight or by reading in cars or trains is an injurious practice.

APPORTIONMENT OF DELEGATES.

By the Constitution of the State of Maryland, Article 3, Section 5, it is made the duty of the Governor, "immediately after the taking and publishing of the next national census, or after any State enumeration of population," to arrange the representatives in the House of Delegates, as follows:

Every county having 18,000 population or less, 2 Delegates.

Every county having over 18,000 and less than 28,000, 3 Delegates.

28,000 and less than 40,000, 4 Del.
40,000 and less than 55,000, 5 Del.
55,000 and upwards, 6 Delegates.

Each of the four legislative districts of Baltimore, one Senator and as many Delegates as the largest county. No county can have more than six Delegates.

LEGALIZED PRIMARIES.

An Act legalizing Primary Elections in Baltimore city was passed by the General Assembly of 1902. Chapter 206. Under this law candidates for office in Baltimore city may be nominated by the direct vote of the party at the polls or by party convention as the party committees or the governing body of the party may decide.

On April 7, 1903, the municipal primaries of both the Democratic and Republican parties were held in the same rooms all over the city by the regularly constituted election officials, the voters announcing their party affiliation, receiving ballots of the party, and having them deposited, after marking, in separate boxes. Only those persons who had previously declared their party affiliation were permitted to vote. The declaration was made at the time of the fall regular or spring supplemental registration and voters were permitted to change the record at the supplemental registration for the municipal primary.

The legalized primary was very much like a general election. The regular election officials conducted it, the official ballots and methods of marking were much the same, and all the penalties for violations of the general election law are made to apply.

In case the nominations are made by conventions, then each candidate is entitled to have his name placed at the head of his group of delegates, and a cross mark after the name of the candidate will be a vote for that group of delegates.

TO BRING DOWN SOOT.

Zinc is a peculiar metal in many respects. It volatilizes easily and the oxide thus produced has a strong affinity for carbon. If one's chimney is clogged up with soot and the owner desires to get rid of it, all that is necessary is to throw a little zinc scrap into the fire. Any old zinc will do, and very little will suffice to keep the chimney clean if used about once a week. The vapor of zinc oxide seizes upon the carbon of the soot and forms a new chemical compound, part of which goes up the flue and part falls to the bottom, to be shoveled out as ashes.

UNITED STATES NAVAL APPRENTICES.

Rules Governing Enlistments and Training of Youths for Sea Service.

After January 1, 1904, the minimum age for the enlistment of boys to serve in the Navy of the United States will be 16 years. Between 16 and 17 years of age boys may be enlisted to serve until they are 21 years old, with the consent of their parents or guardians.

Very desirable boys who are over the age of 17 and not yet 18, or well-developed boys in good physical condition who have not quite reached the age of 16 may be enlisted after authority is received from the Navy Department.

Apprentices, first class, may be given acting appointments as petty officers, third class, and, if they serve satisfactorily the probationary period under the United States Navy Regulations, they shall be recommended for a permanent appointment previous to discharge.

An apprentice with permanent appointment as petty officer, third class, will receive if he enlists within the next four months of the date of his discharge, four months' pay of his rating, $120, and begin his new enlistment with the pay of $31.36.

Ex-apprentices have the privilege of retirement when they reach the age of 50 years on three-quarters' pay.

Apprentices are under the immediate supervision of the Bureau of Navigation. Information regarding enlistments will be furnished by that Bureau or by the commanding officers of the following-named receiving ships and recruiting stations, at which enlistments are made: U. S. training ship "Constellation," Newport, R. I.; U. S. receiving ship "Hancock," Navy Yard, Brooklyn, N. Y.; U. S. receiving ship "Wabash," Navy Yard, Boston, Mass.; U. S. receiving ship "Minneapolis," Navy Yard, League Island, Philadelphia; U. S. training ship "Pensacola," Naval Training Station, San Francisco, Cal.; U. S. receiving ship "Independence," Navy Yard, Mare Island, Cal.; U. S. receiving ship "Nipsic," Bremerton, Wash.; Navy Yard, Washington, D. C.; Navy Yard, Portsmouth, N. H.; at the naval recruiting stations, room 1421 Masonic Temple, Chicago, Ill.; 1319 Market street, Philadelphia, Pa.; 87 South street, New York City; 22 Hanover street, Boston, Mass.; Prudential Building, Buffalo, N. Y.; Navy Yard, Pensacola, Fla.

The boys having undergone a short probationary period of instruction, they are transferred to a higher class, where the real instruction in seamanship, gunnery and physical development begins. After six months of this kind of work a boy is properly seasoned and prepared to go to sea. Instruction in reading, writing and arithmetic, history and geography are compulsory.

Liberty to visit the adjacent city is granted apprentices while at training stations, if good conduct warrants the privilege. After having been at the station for a period of six months, if conduct and class standing warrant, a boy may, upon the request of his parents or guardian, go home on seven days' leave, time going to and from not to be counted.

While on training cruises in foreign ports daily liberty is given the apprentices in good standing. A reasonable amount of spending money is issued each boy at each port.

Once enlisted they must fulfill their terms of apprenticeship and cannot be discharged except for physical disability, for inaptitude or for misconduct.

No enlistment will be canceled after the applicant has been accepted and has signed the shipping articles and taken the oath of allegiance. If he fail to report after ten days he will be declared a deserter.

When received on board ship, apprentices will be furnished, free of cost, with an outfit of clothing to the value of $45.

Boys will be enlisted as apprentices, third class, and receive $9 per month.

Apprentices, third class, who are qualified, after completing their tour of service in a cruising training ship, will be advanced to apprentices, second class, at $15 per month.

Apprentices, second class, who are qualified, will be advanced to apprentices, first class, at $21 per month, after they shall have served one year in cruising ships of war.

Rations and medical attendance are furnished free, in addition to pay. By rations is meant a daily allowance of substantial food, amply sufficient for the consumption of any one man.

Boys enlisted to serve until 21 years of age will not be permitted to allot any part of their pay to parents or guardians until they shall have been transferred to general cruising ships.

Apprentices will be transferred to fill vacancies in seagoing vessels as they become proficient and their services are required.

Apprentices who are enlisted in the East will be given a course of training at Coasters Harbor Island, near Newport, R. I., and those enlisted on the Pacific Coast at United States Naval Training Station, San Francisco, Cal., before being sent to sea.

HOT ARTESIAN WATER.

An artesian well at Boise, Idaho, spurts water with a temperature of 170 degrees F. This water is largely used to heat Boise. The water is piped from about one mile distant, losing only four or five degrees in transit.

ATLANTIC COAST HURRICANE, SEPTEMBER, 1903.

September 15, 1903, a storm of great intensity moved up the Atlantic ocean, reaching the New Jersey coast early Wednesday morning, September 16. This storm caused severe easterly gales in Maryland, Delaware, New Jersey, Southeast Pennsylvania and the vicinity of extreme South New York. After reaching New York the storm apparently turned eastward and disappeared as rapidly as it came. It is estimated that 16 lives were lost; missing and probably dead, 12.

The storm at Atlantic City was much like that of 1880, which nearly wrecked the place. The Government wind gauge registered 62 miles an hour and then broke. It is estimated that the velocity was 70 miles. Dozens of hotels were badly damaged, wagons and trees were overturned in the streets and the contents of stores, even jewels and watches, were strewn about. The velocity at Cape May was estimated at 80 miles, but less damage was done there than at Atlantic City.

At Ocean City, Md., the wind tore away porches and some of the roofs of a number of houses, and the waves badly washed the railroad tracks, board walks, etc. But no material damage was done. Some of the fishermen lost all they possessed. The storm was also furious at Berlin and Salisbury, Md.

The storm centre on the Worcester coast of Maryland was at Berlin, where the rate of the wind was registered at 61 miles by the instrument of Dr. Derrickson. The direction of the wind was northeast around to southwest and backward and forward in a sweeping circle of narrow dimensions, but of great force and destructiveness.

The large brick building of William J. Collins, carriage manufacturer and wheelwright, was in the center of extreme violence. The building was utterly demolished. After the storm passed over nothing but a pile of debris remained, in which was mingled broken carriages, machinery, bricks and mortar, timber and other fragments of what was a large business establishment.

All around Berlin and in the town itself trees were twisted and torn to pieces and flattened, some in one direction, others near by in diametrically the opposite direction. Every fruit tree within the path of the tornado was stripped of its fruit. The cornfields were prostrated. The public roads were obstructed. Great trees were thrown across the railroad track, impeding travel. Passengers on the morning trains were delayed until the crews of the trains could clear the tracks.

In Lower Delaware crops and trees were prostrated and roads blocked with debris.

At Delaware Breakwater vessels were tossed about like corks. Capt. J. B. Mahaffey and four of the schooner Hattie H. Marsh's crew were drowned.

Passengers on the Old Dominion liner Princess Anne were terrified on the run down the coast. The stokers quit work in terror, but were forced to resume at the muzzles of guns.

The damage in New York city is estimated at fully $2,000,000 and one life was lost. The wind there reached 63 miles and hour and in Philadelphia 24 miles.

President Roosevelt, while going from Oyster Bay to Ellis Island, was caught in the gale and had a trying experience.

NEW STARS.

New stars, or as they are now denominated "Novae," are those remarkable stars which blaze up, so far as is known, only once in the period of their history, then gradually fade away to their former magnitude, which they commonly retain with, as far as is yet known, little or no variation. The following list of such stars which have appeared since the year 1500 is compiled from the circulars of the Harvard University:

1572	Cassiopeai 1	Tycho.
1600	Cygnus 3	Janson.
1604	Ophiuchus 1	Kepler.
1670	Vulpecula 3	Anthelm.
1848	Ophiuchus 5	Hind.
1860	Scorpis 7	Auwers.
1866	Corona Borealis 2	Birmingham.
1876	Cygnus 3	Schmidt.
1885	Andomeda 7	Hartnig.
1887	Perseus 9	Fleming.
1891	Auriga 4	Anderson.
1893	Norina 7	Fleming.
1895	Carina 8	Fleming.
1895	Centaurus 7	Fleming.
1898	Sagitta 5	Fleming.
1901	Perseus 1	Anderson.

ABOUT HUMAN BEINGS.

Reliable estimates figure up the total of 1,500,000,000 people on the earth; that 32¼ million people die each year; nearly 100,000 a day; over 4,000 each hour; and while 67 die each minute, 70 are born.

The average of human life is 33 years. One-fourth of the people of the earth die before they are 6 years old; one-half before they are 16 years of age. About one person in every 100 lives to the age of 65 years.

CHINESE PROVERBS.

A wise man adapts himself to circumstances, as water shapes itself to the vessel that contains it.

The error of one moment becomes the sorrow of a whole lifetime.

A vacant mind is open to all suggestions, as the mountain (echoes) all sounds.

He who pursues the stag regards not hares.

The gem cannot be polished without friction, nor the man perfected without trials.

A wise man forgets old grudges.

He who wishes to rise in the world should veil his ambition with the forms of humility.

The gods cannot help a man who loses opportunities.

Borrowed money makes time short; working for others makes it long.

CRIM ANTIQUES AND "KEY" CHAIRS.

A remarkable sale of antiques collected by the late Dr. Wm. H. Crim took place at the Fourth Regiment Armory in Baltimore, daily, except Saturdays and Sundays, from April 22 to May 25, by O. A. Kirkland, auctioneer. This was supplemented by sales for several days at the Crim residence, 413 W. Fayette street, the whole netting about $80,000. Dr. Crim was a lifelong collector of antique furniture, curios, old china, pictures, and his house was stocked with many rare things. He died November 15, 1902, leaving a will which made the University of Maryland, School of Medicine, his residuary legatee. The sale of his collection was attended day after day by many private collectors, both men and women and fashionable folk, as well as by dealers in such wares as he had gathered about him in great profusion. Nearly 3,000 different articles were sold at the armory, all carefully catalogued and grouped in a series of 300 lots for each day of the sale. Prices, as a rule, were satisfactory. The most sensational incident of the entire auction, however, was the sale of eight chairs, supposed to have been the property of Francis Scott Key, for $1,000 each, making $8,000 for the lot. They were bought by Charles H. Pond, a New York dealer who refused to disclose the name of the person for whom he made the purchase, but who was believed to be Mr. Charles Steele, a partner of J. Pierpont Morgan.

Col. Clement Sulivane, of Cambridge, Md., gives the history of these chairs as follows:

"While Benjamin Rush, of Philadelphia, was abroad as U. S. Minister to France, the chairs, 12 in number, were bought by him upon the order of Mr. and Mrs. James Steele, of Hansell, Dorchester county, he having married a half-sister of Mrs. Steele. Mr. Rush stated that the chairs were originally the property of a nobleman who lost his life during the French Revolution. On the death of Mr. and Mrs. Steele the chairs passed into the possession of their son, Mr. James B. Steele, of Cambridge, a brother of the late I. Nevett Steele, of Baltimore city. On the death of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Steele they passed to their four daughters, Mrs. Louise Hooper, Mrs. V. R. Dickinson, Mrs. S. I. Buck and Mrs. Ellen Richards, who sold eight of them to Dr. Crim a few years ago.

"Of the remaining four, one is in Cambridge, the property of Mrs. Va. R. Dickinson (nee Wilhelmina E. B. Steele,) and the remaining three are the property of Mr. Charles Steele, of New York city, son of Mr. I. Nevett Steele and partner of Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan. The writer (Col. Sulivane) has personally known the chairs for over 50 years, and saw Mrs. Dickinson's remaining chair at her residence the day this statement was written.

"The sole connection that the Key family can have with the chairs is that Mr. Henry Steele, of Annapolis (brother of I. Nevett Steele and James B. Steele), married one of the Misses Key, a daughter of Francis Scott Key, of 'The Star Spangled Banner' fame."

THE WORD "ALMANAC."

The word "almanac" comes to us from the Arabic "al," the definite article in the Arabic tongue, and "manakh," which signifies a calendar. The word calendar is from the Latin calendae (the first day of each month), and this is probably derived from a word calare, to call (cognate with the Greek KLVELY) because it was customary in very ancient times to summon people together at the beginning of a month to make known the calendar arrangements for that month.

UNITED STATES ARMY CADETS,

Regulations for Appointment to the West Point Military Academy,

Each Congressional District and Territory, the District of Columbia, and also Porto Rico, is entitled to have one cadet at the United States Military Academy at West Point. Each State is also entitled to have two cadets at the Academy from the State at large, and forty are also allowed from the United States at large. The appointments (except those from the United States at large, the District of Columbia, and from Porto Rico), are made by the Secretary of War at the request of the Senator, Representative or Delegate in Congress; and the person appointed must be an actual resident of the State, District or Territory from which the appointment is made. The appointments from the United States at large and from the District of Columbia are specially conferred by the President of the United States. The appointment of the cadet from Porto Rico is made by the President on the recommendation of the resident Commissioner.

Applications can be made at any time, by letter to the Adjutant-General, to have the name of the applicant placed upon the register that it may be furnished to the proper Senator, Representative or Delegate, when a vacancy occurs. The application must exhibit the full name, date of birth, and permanent abode of the applicant, with the number of the Congressional District in which his residence is situated.

Appointments are required by law to be made one year in advance of the date of admission, except in cases where, by reason of death or other cause, a vacancy occurs which cannot be provided for by such appointment in advance. These vacancies are filled in time for the next examination.

For each candidate appointed there may be nominated two alternates. The principal and each alternate will receive from the War Department a letter of appointment, and must appear for examination at the time and place therein designated; those previously accepted by Academic Board on certificate as mentally qualified appearing for physical examination only.

No candidate will be admitted who is under seventeen or over twenty-two years of age, or who is deformed, or afflicted with any disease or infirmity which would render him unfit for the military service, or who has, at the time of presenting himself, any disorder of an infectious or immoral character. Accepted candidates, if between seventeen and eighteen years of age, should not fall below five feet three inches in height and one hundred pounds in weight; if between eighteen and nineteen years, five feet three and one half inches in height and one hundred and five pounds in weight; if over nineteen, five feet four inches in height and one hundred and ten pounds in weight. Candidates must be unmarried.

Each candidate must on reporting at West Point present a certificate showing successful vaccination within one year; or, a certificate of two vaccinations, made at least a month apart, within three months.

Candidates will be examined mentally and physically before boards of Army officers, at such places as the War Department may designate, on May 1 each year. Those who pass successfully will report to the Superintendent at West Point June 15 the same year. The mental examination will be in reading, writing, spelling, English grammar, English composition, English literature, arithmetic, algebra through quadratic equations, plane geometry, descriptive geography, and the elements of physical geography, especially the geography of the United States; United States history, the outlines of general history, and the general principles of physiology and hygiene.

The Academic Board will consider and may accept properly attested certificates of competitive examinations or certificates from public high schools, colleges or universities in lieu of the regular mental entrance examination.

Every candidate for admission must be subjected to a rigid physical examination by an Army medical board after his mental qualification has been ascertained. Before receiving his warrant of appointment he must sign an engagement of service for eight years, unless sooner discharged by competent authority. He must subscribe to an oath or affirmation to support the Constitution of the United States, and bear true allegiance to the National Government; to maintain and defend the sovereignty of the United States, paramount to any and all allegiance, sovereignty, or fealty he may owe to any State or country whatsoever; and he will at all times obey the legal orders of his superior officers, and the rules and articles governing the armies of the United States.

The pay of a cadet is $500 per year and one ration per day, or commutation therefor at thirty cents per day. The total is $609.50, to commence with his admission to the Academy. The actual and necessary traveling expenses of candidates from their homes to the Military Academy are credited to their accounts after their admission as cadets. There is no provision for paying the expenses of candidates who fail to enter and they must be prepared to defray all their own expenses.

No cadet is permitted to receive money, or any other supplies, from his parents, or from any person whomsoever, without the sanction of the Superintendent. A most rigid observance of this regulation is urged upon all parents and guardians, as its violation would make distinctions between cadets, which it is the especial desire to avoid; the pay of a cadet is sufficient, with proper economy, for his support. A deposit of $100 must be made, on entrance, to cover the cost of outfit for uniform. Each cadet must be provided with specified clothing, toilet articles, blankets, etc.

When any cadet of the United States Military Academy has gone through all its classes and received a regular diploma from the academic staff, he may be promoted and commissioned as a second lieutenant in any arm or corps of the Army in which there may be a vacancy and the duties of which he may have been judged competent to perform; and in case there shall not at the time be a vacancy in such arm or corps, he may, at the discretion of the President, be promoted and commissioned in it as an additional second lieutenant, with the usual pay and allowances of a second lieutenant, until a vacancy shall happen.

RADIUM AND ITS WONDERS.

Undoubtedly the most wonderful substance known to science is radium, so named from its property of radiating ceaselessly into space minute particles, or electrons, at a velocity of 120,000 miles a second. In 1896 M. Becquerel discovered that salts of uranium give out rays which, like Rœntgen rays, pass through opaque bodies and affect a photographic plate, and Mme. Curie, while experimenting with these "Becquerel rays," discovered radium which radiates with 100,000 times the energy of uranium. It is found in such minute quantities that a single pound of it is said to be worth a million dollars. It is obtained from pitchblende, which consists of brownish black masses that cluster together like grapes. Radium is a source of radiant energy and a possible clue to the nature of electricity and the constitution of matter. The rays thrown out by it are supposed by some experimenters to be streams of particles of electricity itself, called electrons, together with very minute particles of radium. These particles proceed with amazing force, only their smallness preventing them from producing destructive effects upon surrounding objects. They pass through sheet iron without loss of speed. Like the Rœntgen, or X rays, they injure the human skin. A small quantity of a radium salt kept in the vest pocket has been found to produce a serious burn. It is itself luminous without heat and causes objects struck by its radiations to phosphoresce. It colors glass, changes oxygen into ozone, turns white phosphorus into the red variety and ionizes gases, petroleum, liquid air, paraffin, etc. Yet, notwithstanding its incessant bombardment of surrounding objects, a piece of radium salt loses no weight or no appreciable portion of weight. If it be true, as some suppose, that what radium throws out is electricity and not its own particles, its retention of its weight without diminution is intelligible, but the origin of its radiant energy is still an enigma.

THE TEETH AND THE EYES.

Two scientific discoveries of immense benefit to suffering humanity were announced at the dawn of the year 1903. One was a new anæsthetic which renders all operations upon the teeth painless and deprives toothache of all its terrors. It was discovered by a Hungarian dentist, Dr. Dalma, and is obtained from an Indian plant called gasu-basu. Dr. Dalma applied the plant to the nerve pulp of an aching tooth and found that in a few minutes the nerve was rendered as insensible as though it had been killed in the usual way with arsenic. The new anæsthetic is called "Nervocidine."

The other discovery was made by Dr. Geo. J. Bull, an American oculist of Paris, who cured astigmatism by a simple operation. The operation is similar to that for strabismus, or cross-eyes. Dr. Bull's theory is that astigmatism is caused by excessive tension of the eye muscles. The cure is effected by cutting the eye muscle at fault, or, as Dr. Bull describes it, by "loosening the guyropes." The operation is a simple one and is said to be comparatively free from danger. It is not known whether cutting the eye muscle would afford relief in all cases of astigmatism.

MIDSHIPMEN OF THE UNITED STATES NAVY.

Rules Governing Appointments to the Naval Academy at Annapolis Maryland.

The students of the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md., are styled Midshipmen.

After January 1, 1904, the minimum age for admission will be 16 years. The maximum is 20 years. A candidate is eligible for appointment on the day he becomes 16, and is not eligible on the day he becomes 20 years of age.

Two midshipmen are allowed for each Senator, Representative and Delegate in Congress, two for the District of Columbia and five each year from the United States at large. The appointments from the District of Columbia and five each year at large are made by the President.

One midshipman is allowed from Porto Rico, who must be a native of that island. The appointment is made by the President on the recommendation of the Governor of Porto Rico.

The Congressional appointments are equitably distributed so that in regular course each Senator, Representative and Delegate in Congress may appoint one midshipman during each Congress.

After June 30, 1913, each Senator, Representative and Delegate in Congress will be allowed to appoint but one Midshipman, instead of two.

The course for midshipmen is six years—four years at the Academy, when the succeeding appointment is made, and two years at sea, at the expiration of which time the examination for final graduation takes place.

Midshipmen who pass the examination for final graduation are appointed to fill vacancies in the lower grades of the line of the Navy, and of the Marine Corps, in the order of merit, as determined by the Academic Board of the Naval Academy.

The Secretary of the Navy each year notifies the Senators and members of the House of Representatives of existing vacancies. All candidates allowed for Congressional districts, for Territories and for the District of Columbia must be actual residents of the Districts or Territories, respectively, from which they are nominated.

Beginning with the year 1903, the following examinations for admission of midshipmen to the Academy will be held, viz:

1. The general examination to be held on the third Tuesday in April, under the supervision of the Civil Service Commission, at points named.

2. A second examination will be held at Washington, D. C., only on the second Tuesday in May, under the supervision of the Civil Service Commission.

3. A third examination will be held at Annapolis, Md., only, on the third Tuesday in June under the supervision of the Superintendent of the Naval Academy.

Candidates are examined mentally only at the examinations held under the supervision of the Civil Service Commission. All those qualifying mentally who are entitled to appointment in order of nomination will be notified by the Superintendent of the Naval Academy when to report at the Academy for physical examination, and if physically qualified will be appointed.

Alternates are given the privilege of reporting for examination at the same time with the principal.

Should any special examination be authorized by the Secretary of the Navy, other than the above, it will be held immediately after the third Tuesday in June.

No special or general examinations for entering the Naval Academy will be begun later than June 30. The large number of Midshipmen to be instructed and drilled makes this rule necessary, and is to the great advantage of the new midshipmen themselves. The summer months are utilized in preliminary instruction in professional branches and drills, such as handling boats under oars and sails, and in seamanship, gunnery and infantry drills. These practical exercises form most excellent groundwork as a preparation for the academic course.

The examination papers used in all examinations are prepared at the Naval Academy and the examination marks made by candidates finally passed upon by the officials of the Academy.

Under the law, candidates failing to pass the entrance examination will not be allowed another examination for admission to the same class unless recommended for re-examination by the Board of Examiners.

The Civil Service Commission only conducts the examination of candidates whose names have been furnished by the Navy Department. It is requested that all correspondence relative to the nomination and examination of candidates be addressed to the Bureau of Navigation, Navy Department, Washington, D. C.

Nominations for examination the third Tuesday in April should be forwarded to the Bureau ten days prior to the date of examination, as that is the latest date arrangements can be made for the examination.

MIDSHIPMEN OF THE UNITED STATES NAVY—Continued.

Candidates will be required to enter he Academy immediately after passng the prescribed examination.

No leave of absence will be granted o Midshipmen of the fourth class.

Candidates will be examined physically at the Naval Academy, by a board composed of three medical officers of the Navy. Any one of number of physical defects or diseases will be a disqualification.

Candidates will be examined mentally in reading, writing, punctuation, spelling, arithmetic, geography, English grammar, United States history, world's history, algebra through quadratic equations, and plane geometry (five books of Chauvenet's Geometry, or an equivalent.) Deficiency in any one of these subjects may be sufficient to insure the rejection of the candidate.

Before entering the Academy the appointee must sign an agreement to serve in the Navy eight years, including his time of probation at the Naval Academy, unless sooner discharged.

The pay of a midshipman is $500 a year, commencing from the date of admission. The expense attending equipment at entrance are $226.35. A preliminary deposit of $30 for clothing is required on entering the Academy.

INTERNATIONAL YACHT RACE, 1903.

In the International Yacht Race—Great Britain against the United States—of 1903 for the America's Cup, the American Yacht Reliance outsailed Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock III., and the cup, which was won in British waters in 1851, will remain on this side of the Atlantic until England is able to "lift it."

The contests of 1903 were as heretofore over a 30-mile course to be sailed within a time limit of 5 hours 30 minutes off Sandy Hook Lightship. There were but two entries, the Reliance by the New York Yacht Club and Shamrock III. by Sir Thomas Lipton. The American boat, having nearly 2,000 more square feet of sail area than the challenger, was subjected to a handicap. Shamrock III. was accorded a time allowance of 1 minute 45 seconds. The terms were best three out of five for the winner.

There were five failures of both boats to comply with conditions, though in all the Reliance showed superior sailing qualities over the challenger. The contests began August 20 over a course 15 miles and return. The wind was light and the time limit expired just after the Reliance had turned the outer mark two miles ahead of the Shamrock III.

August 22. In a 15-mile beat to windward and back, Reliance defeated the challenger by 9 minutes actual time, or 7 minutes and 3 seconds after deducting the time allowance.

The victory was won on the fifty-second anniversary of the day when the America captured the cup.

August 25. The Reliance won by 1 minute 19 seconds corrected time. The course was a triangle of 30 miles, or 10 miles to the leg, and the first leg was a beat to windward. The breeze was moderate and the water smooth.

August 27. Race not finished within the time limit. The Reliance sailed across the finish line 6 minutes 45 seconds after the time limit expired, two miles in the lead. Shamrock III. did not finish.

August 29. The Yachts did not start on account of a gale.

August 31. The wind weakened toward the close of this day's race and the yachts were unable to finish within the time limit. The Reliance rounded the windward mark 20 minutes, 23 seconds ahead of Shamrock III. and was fully three miles ahead of the challenger when the time limit expired.

September 1. No start on account of light winds.

September 3. The Reliance won the third and final race of the series, finishing in a dense fog so thick that it was impossible to see 200 yards ahead. The victor missed the finish line, passed it and then returned to it from the opposite direction. Shamrock III. did not finish.

Measurements of the Yachts.

Before the races the Reliance and Shamrock III. were measured in the Erie Basin by C. E. Mower, the official measurer of the New York Yacht Club. The official figures of the measurements were as follows:

*Handicapped 19 seconds.
†Handicapped 4 seconds.

INTERNATIONAL YACHT RACE, 1903—Continued.

	Reliance.	Shamrock III.
Water line	89.66 feet.	89.81 feet.
Base line	201.75 feet.	187.54 feet.
Foreside of mast	84.29 feet.	81.40 feet.
Spinnaker boom	83.75 feet.	81.40 feet.
Main gaff	71.90 feet.	65.75 feet.
Topmast	72.00 feet.	69.15 feet.
80 per cent. of topmast	57.60 feet.	55.32 feet.
Perpendicular	149.68 feet.	144.83 feet.

	Reliance.	Shamrock III.
Sail area	16,169.93 sq. ft.	14,337.45 sq. ft.
Square root of sail area	127.16 sq. ft.	119.75 sq. ft.
Sailing length	108.41 feet.	104.77 feet.
Men on board	64	56

The racing length of a yacht is equal to the sum of the water line and the square root of the sail area divided by 2, and for each foot difference in the racing length as thus determined the smaller yacht receives an allowance of a little over one second a mile.

The time allowance of 1 minute 45 seconds over a 30-mile course was allowed Shamrock III. as the result of this measurement.

It was found that the Shamrock III. was slightly longer on the water line than the American boat, but the latter proved to have nearly 2,000 more square feet of sail area than the challenger, and it was this enormous sail spread that taxed the American boat so heavily.

ECLIPSES.

The highest number of eclipses that can possibly occur within a year is seven, and of these five will be eclipses of the sun and two of the moon. This maximum number of eclipses has not occurred since the year 1823. The smallest number of eclipses in a year is two, and in this case both are solar eclipses. The present year, 1904, enjoys the distinction of the minimum number of eclipses. The recurrence of eclipses at a regular interval of 18 years and 11 1-3 days (10 1-3 days, if there happen to be five leap years in the interval) was an ancient discovery due to the Chaldeans, who called this regular recurrence the saros, a word signifying "repetition." The last time that there were only two eclipses in one year was March 7 and August 29 of the year 1886. By adding 18 years 18 1-3 days to those dates we obtain as results March 17 and September 9 of the year 1904, on which two dates the two eclipses will take place.

ATMOSPHERE AND CLOUDS.

According to recent theories the atmosphere surrounding the earth extends several hundred miles upward instead of only 60 as was formerly thought. The real distance is estimated at 500 miles by observing the descent of meteors through space.

Clouds of feathery forms extend ten miles overhead. They are highest in summer and lowest in winter; sometimes descending to within half a mile of the earth. Though they seem to move slowly they travel really at the rate of 60 to 90 miles an hour. The thunder clouds of the summer season are sometimes seven or eight miles tall from base to summit.

The aeronaut Glaisher was carried to the height of 7 miles in a balloon in 1862. This is the greatest height ever reached by man. Six miles up the rarified air would produce unconsciousness, unless oxygen was supplied artificially.

MOONS OF MARS AND JUPITER.

The inner of the two moons of Mars, Phobos, enjoys a distinction which no other member of the solar system enjoys in that it courses three times around the planet before the latter turns around once. Although the fifth moon of Jupiter, discovered on September 9, 1892, by Mr Barnard of the Lick Observatory in California, has the short period of 12 hours, it is still about two hours longer than the time which Jupiter requires to spin around his axis. There it ought, however, to be noticed that the rotation of Jupiter is exceptionally rapid. If the giant planet required as much time for one of his rotations as does Mars, or the earth, then the new satellite of Jupiter would present the same feature to its primary as we actually find in Mars and his inner satellite.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM OF MARYLAND.

Adopted in Convention at Ford's Opera House, Baltimore, September 17, 1903.

Chairman of Convention—George A. Pearre, of Allegany.

NOMINEES.

For Governor—S. A. Williams, of Harford county.

For Comptroller—Lemuel E. P. Dennis, of Somerset county.

For Attorney-General—Geo. Whitelock, of Baltimore city.

PARTY EXECUTIVE.

Chairman State Central Committee—John B. Hanna, of Harford county.

Platform of 1903.

The Republicans of Maryland rejoice in the results of Republican administration in the nation. It has promoted the welfare of the whole country.

We commend President Roosevelt's adherence to President McKinley's policies and his own great ability and courage, showing him in every way worthy of election by the people to the Presidency. We favor his nomination for President next year.

The Maryland Republican delegation in Congress has honored the State in both Houses.

They (our Republican Senators and Members, have greatly helped Baltimore city and Maryland by the wise appropriations from the Federal Treasury obtained for our buildings, our rivers, our harbors and national public works.

The Democratic party obtained power in Maryland four years ago under false pretenses, by promises it has not kept, with purposes it did not dare avow.

It elected a Governor who called an extraordinary session of the Legislature for purely partisan advantage, against the protest of an enlightened public opinion and at great needless public expense.

As a part of this conspiracy he aided the same leaders in procuring a useless and untrustworthy State census—another false pretense—at a heavy cost to the taxpayers.

He condoned the trick ballot fraud and rewarded the faithless Supervisors of Elections by reappointing them to the trust they had just betrayed. He has been careless as to the reputation and antecedents of public officers appointed to prominent positions.

He has exercised the pardoning power partially and unequally and to the detriment of the public interest. In the words of our own Declaration of Rights, we declare that "The rights of the people to participate in the Legislature is the best security of liberty and the foundation of all free government, and every male citizen having the qualifications prescribed by the Constitution ought to have the right of suffrage."

We further demand that the Legislature shall remedy the ascertained defects in our present Election Law, resulting solely from the changes made in that law by the Democratic managers at the special session in the interests of fraud and oppression.

We must put an end to the increasing disfranchisement of many citizens, through accident or fraudulent marks on the ballots.

We must insure the canvass of the vote by the Supervisors without error or confusion due to any uncertainty or omission in the law.

A Republican Governor and Legislature will bring back to the people fair election laws. A Democratic Governor and Legislature are pledged to complicate the ballot, to confuse the voter, to throw out the vote after it is cast, and to extend the disfranchisement of the people.

We condemn the employment of the Police Board and forces of Baltimore city and the Board of Liquor License Commissioners in the interests of the Democratic party and in furtherance of the political ambitions and fortunes of individual members of that party.

It is of the utmost importance to the people of Baltimore city that these agencies should be taken out of politics, and we pledge the Republican party of Maryland to such acts as will accomplish that purpose.

We favor the enactment of a primary election law and a corrupt practices act applicable to the entire State.

We favor the delegation of the legislative power to grant charters to a public officer, under liberal and certain rules, as being the most effective method of curbing the lobby and diverting the revenues regularly derived therefrom by its members into the treasury of the State.

We favor a system of public road improvement to be aided by both national and State appropriations and to be applied on equal terms throughout the State. These appropriations should supplement, on reasonable terms, the money raised for that purpose by the counties and individuals.

We favor such additional appropriations for our public school system as will aid each county in lengthening its school year and in increasing the salaries of its corps of teachers.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM OF MARYLAND—Continued.

The schools should be kept free from partisan political influences of every kind.

The oyster and crab industries of Maryland are of paramount importance and shall be protected by wise and liberal legislation.

First—We condemn the Democratic Oyster Law of 1900, which has fastened upon the taxpayers an army of useless officials.

Second—The oyster beds and bars in many sections of the State are greatly depleted and need replenishing, and, therefore, we favor the planting of oyster shells on the bottoms of our rivers and bay at public expense under such business supervision as to increase the oyster supply, add to the earnings of labor and bring larger revenues to the treasury of the State.

Third—We favor the enactment of such legislation as will conserve all of the fish products of the State and oppose any curtailment of rights or privileges now enjoyed by that large part of our population who are employed in these fisheries.

We favor co-operation by the State and Baltimore City in securing for the city a sewerage system constructed under the supervision of a commission chosen without regard to politics and comprising men recognized by public opinion as entitled to the respect and confidence of the community.

We promise that our party, if successful at the polls, shall give effect promptly to all these pledges and we favor impartial protection to all citizens in the exercise of their just rights, and we denounce all attempts to inflame sectional or race prejudice as a cloak for dishonest government and further outrages upon the elective franchise.

PROHIBITION PLATFORM OF MARYLAND.

Adopted in Convention at Hagerstown, Sept. 3, 1903.

Chairman of Convention—William Gisriel, of Baltimore.

NOMINEES.

For Governor—William Gisriel, of Baltimore city.

For Comptroller of the Treasury—Daniel W. Miles, of Somerset county.

For Attorney-Gereral—Frank Higgins, of Montgomery county.

PARTY EXECUTIVE.

Chairman of State Central Committee—John N. Parker, of Baltimore city.

Platform of 1903.

The Maryland State Prohibition Convention, assembled in Hagerstown September 3, 1903, recognizing God as the source of all government and believing that all human enactments should conform to the divine law, again reiterate fidelity to the national Prohibition party and declare anew.

The question is again before the people of Maryland as to what they propose to do about the legalized liquor traffic, the admitted source of the greater portion of the crime, vice, misery and poverty in our beloved land. We denounce the whole traffic as a perpetual hotbed of legalized iniquity, a menace to every Maryland child, an insult to every Maryland mother and daughter and a crime against the thousands yet unborn. To take care of the products of the saloon taxes are imposed upon the industrious and law-abiding. It makes Maryland soil dangerous for every good thing. It balks the church. It destroys the work of the school and home.

Never in their history have either the Republican or Democratic parties of Maryland taken any adequate steps toward relieving the people of the State from this intolerable burden of crime and taxation. They will not even enforce the license laws of their own making. There is not a licensed saloon in Maryland and never has been that does not operate and has not always operated under laws enacted for their continuance and protection by the Republican and Democratic parties.

We demand the complete annihilation of the entire liquor traffic for beverage purposes on exactly the same grounds that we protect our citizens from vendors of decayed meat, dynamite and poisonous drugs.

We call upon all citizens, regardless of former political affiliation, to join with us to this end, throw off forever the shackles of the party boss and vote a ticket that does not stand for the continuance of this licensed infamy.

ALCOHOL MOTORS.

Alcohol motors are much used in Germany, especially for automobile purposes, the fluid, 90 per cent. pure, being sold at about 5 cents a quart. The motors have all the advantages of cleanliness, ease of starting and stopping, and the weight is only about one-half that of a portable steam engine of equal power

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM OF MARYLAND.

Adopted in Convention at Music Hall, Baltimore, Sept. 17, 1903.

Chairman of Convention—Spencer C. Jones, of Montgomery County.

NOMINEES.

For Governor—Edwin Warfield, of Howard county.

For Comptroller—Dr. Gordon T. Atkinson, of Somerset county.

For Attorney-General—William Shepard Bryan, of Baltimore, city.

PARTY EXECUTIVE.

Chairman of the State Central Committee for two years—Murray Vandiver, of Harford county.

Platform of 1903.

The representatives of the Democratic party of Maryland, in State convention assembled, heartly commend the administration of Governor John Walter Smith.

He has diligently and faithfully discharged the many and varied duties of his office and fully made good his assurances to the people that under his administration as Governor the laws would be vigorously enforced, the public revenues carefully guarded and peace and good order resolutely maintained.

The efficient and successful management of the affairs of the State in Democratic hands for the last four years justly entitles us to claim a continuation of the confidence and support of the people.

The good government which we are now enjoying under Democratic administration cannot possibly be made better by the Republican party; but, on the contrary, dependent for its existence as that party in this State is upon its solid negro vote, it is manifest that the defeat of our ticket at the coming election will bring back upon us the evils and dangers from which our triumph in 1899 so fortunately delivered us.

We believe that the political destinies of Maryland should be shaped and controlled by the white people of the State, and while we disclaim any purpose to do any injustice whatever to our colored population, we declare, without reserve, our resolute purpose to preserve in every conservative and constitutional way the political ascendancy of our race.

The continuance in power of the Democratic power in this State means:

First—The continued rigid enforcement of the laws which have insured safety to person and protection to property.

Second—Continued economy in the expenditure of the people's money, but without parsimony, and progress without extravagance.

Third—It is a guarantee of the early extinguishment of the State debt and a speedy reduction in taxation.

Fourth—It will result in such amendments to our present excellent election law, which has done so much to lessen the evils of bribery, to assure the secrecy of the ballot and to promote intelligent voting, as experience has shown may be necessary to preserve the purity of our elections, without which good government is impossible.

Fifth—The success of our party means that the public schools of the State will be further fostered, expanded and improved, so that opportunity shall be given to every child to obtain a fair education.

Sixth—Maryland, among the first of the States in the Union to recognize that the welfare of all the people largely depends upon the improvement of public highways, created facilities for cheap transportation. That policy resulted in greatly increasing our prosperity and gave to the city of Baltimore an opportunity to share in the commerce of the country. The time has now arrived when we must return, to some extent, to the former policy of improving the highways. Good roads will cheapen the cost of the transportation of Maryland's products and will add greatly to the value of property and to the comfort of all the people of the State. Our success will assure legislation to this end.

Seventh—The products of the Chesapeake bay and its tributaries have furnished remunerative employment for thousands of our citizens. Their right, their opportunity, to pursue their vocations must be guaranteed, and it is alike the duty and the interest of the State to foster and increase the supply of the natural products of our great inland sea.

Eighth—The Democratic party has shown by example that public improvements in the State and in the city of Baltimore can be made with economy and without suspicion or taint of jobbery. We propose to continue that policy, so that Baltimore city shall have the opportunity to construct its system of sewerage and the improvement of its streets under such restrictions as will insure strict economy by business methods absolutely divorced from party advantage.

Ninth—The Primary Election law, passed by a Democratic Legislature and signed by a Democratic Governor, has produced good results, and we are of opinion that its provisions, with such modifications as local circumstances may demand, should be extended to the whole State.

Tenth—The election of a Democratic majority in both branches of the General Assembly will strengthen the hands of a Democratic Governor and contribute greatly toward the maintenance of good government in the State. It will also make certain the election to the United States Senate of a man who will truly represent the essential principles which the Democratic party has advocated from Jefferson's time to our own and who would scorn to malign and attack the white people of the South in their efforts to properly solve the great questions resulting from the enfranchisement of the negroes.

SOCIALIST PLATFORM OF MARYLAND.

Adopted in Convention at the Labor Lyceum, Baltimore, June 29, 1903.

NOMINEES.

For Governor—Silas M. Crabill, of Hagerstown.

For Comptroller—George L. Wild, of Baltimore city.

For Attorney-General—Charles B. Backman, of Baltimore city.

Platform of 1903.

The platform pledges adherence to the principles of international Socialism and declares its aim to be the organization of the working class and those in sympathy with it into a political party with the object of transforming the present system of private ownership of the means of production and distribution into collective ownership by the entire people.

The economic interests of the capitalist class dominate our entire social system. The lives of the working class are recklessly sacrificed for profit. Wars are fomented between nations, indiscriminate slaughter is encouraged and the destruction of whole races is sanctioned in order that the capitalists may extend their commercial dominion abroad and enhance their supremacy at home.

The thirteen leading planks in the platform are as follows:

1. The public ownership of all means of transportation and communication.

2. The public ownership of all industries controlled by trusts and monopolies.

3. The public ownership of coal mines.

4. The establishment of an eight-hour work day.

5. State insurance of working people in case of accident, lack of employment and want in old age.

6. An efficient employers' liability law.

7. The compulsory education of all children up to the age of 16 years and State and municipal aid for clothing and food.

8. The employment of children under the age of 16 years to be a penal offense.

9. Equal civil and political rights for men and women.

10. The initiative and referendum, proportional representation and the right of recall of representatives by their constituents.

11. The establishment of municipal and county coal and wood yards for the distribution of fuel to the people at cost.

12. All public utilities requiring a franchise to be owned and operated by the different city and county governments.

13. Home rule for the cities of Maryland.

NITROGEN.

Nitrogen has no color, no taste, no smell, no tendency to combine with other elements, no poisonous effect on living creatures, and no power to keep them alive. From the last circumstance it is sometimes called azote. Not until 1894 was it discovered that a still more inert gas, argon, formed one-hundredth of the volume of air from which oxygen was removed. The amount of carbonic acid present in the atmosphere varies considerably; 3 parts in 10,000 is the proportion in the open country, 5 parts is common in towns, and as much as 30 parts in 10,000 of air may be found in badly-ventilated, overcrowded rooms. More than this proportion acts poisonously on animal life.

AN AID TO DIGESTION.

A slice or two of pineapple after a meal is a great aid to digestion. Fresh pineapple juice contains a remarkably active digestive principle similar to the pepsin that is secreted by the human stomach. This digestive principle of the pineapple is called "bromelin," and its action upon proteids (that is, albumen-like substances) is so powerful that it will digest as much as 1,000 times its own weight within a few hours. Its digestive activity varies, as might be expected, according to the kind of albuminous material upon which it acts. Fibrin (which is the albuminoid substance that causes blood to coagulate) disappears entirely after a time. With the coagulated albumen of cooked eggs the digestive process is slow. Upon the albumen of lean meat the digestive principles of the pineapple first produces a pulpy, gelatinous mass, which completely dissolves after a short time. When a slice of fresh pineapple is placed upon a raw beefsteak the surface of the steak gradually becomes gelatinous, owing to the digestive action of the pineapple juice.

SOME NOTABLE BRIDGES.

Niagara Suspension bridge built by Roebling in 1852-55, cost $400,000; 245 feet above water; 1,268 feet long; estimated 1,200 tons.

Brooklyn bridge, New York, was commenced under the direction of J. Roebling in 1870, and completed in about thirteen years; 3,475 feet long, 135 feet high. Cost $15,000,000.

Canti-Lever bridge, 1884, over the Niagara, steel. Length, 910 feet; weight, 3,000 tons. Cost, $222,000.

Victoria bridge, at Montreal, over the St. Lawrence River (tubular), 9,144 feet long. Louisville, over the Ohio River (truss), 5,218 feet long.

St. Louis, over the Mississippi River (steel). 2,045 feet long. Cost over $6,000,000.

The old London stone bridge, commenced in 1176, completed in 1209.

PNEUMONIA.

This treacherous and dangerous disease may occur in connection with bronchial and other affections of the air passages, induced by "taking cold." An attack is usually sudden and generally commences with a chill, frequently accompanied by what are called rigors—shivering, chattering of the teeth, etc. In the majority of cases this occurs during the night and after exposure. The chill is severe and prolonged, lasting from half an hour to several hours. About the same time, or soon afterward, a pain is felt underneath the nipple on one—the affected —side. This pain is sharp and is described as "stabbing." It is aggravated by coughing, sneezing and when the patient takes a "long breath." Fever sets in early, and is one of the first symptoms. It usually runs very high, as is indicated by the great heat of the skin. One peculiarity, seldom noticed in other affections where there is high fever, is often observed in this disease —the skin is moist from the outset.

ALUMINIUM AS A SHARPENER.

It has been discovered that aluminium is valuable in sharpening cutlery The metal apparently has the structure of fine stone and possesses a good dissolving power. It moreover develops during the whetting process an exceedingly fine metal setting substance, greasy to touch, while showing strong adhesion for steel. The knives in a short time obtain such a razor-like edge that it is said that even the best whetstone can not compete with the result.

STATE HOUSE BUILDING COMMISSION.

AUTHORIZED BY ACT OF ASSEMBLY, 1902, CH. 332.

Room 505, Merchants' Bank Building, Baltimore.

Chairman—Gov. John Walter Smith.
Secretary—Thomas J. C. Williams, Baltimore.

Joshua W. Hering, Westminster.
Murray Vandiver, Havre de Grace.
James McSherry, Frederick City.
Samuel D. Schmucker, Baltimore.
Spencer C. Jones, Rockville.
Dr. Elijah Williams, Anne Arundel.
Peter J. Campbell, Baltimore.
John P. T. Mathias, Thurmont.
Ferdinand C. Latrobe, Baltimore.

The Act creating this commission names the commissioners, and provides that the Governor, Comptroller and Treasurer of the State, comprising the Board of Public Works, shall be members of the commission, ex-officio; that the Governor shall be the chairman, and that all vacancies shall be filled by the Board of Public Works. The Act provides for the tearing down and removal of annex buildings and the construction of an addition on lines and style of architecture conforming to the original structure. The commission was authorized to employ a competent architect, and the sum of $250,000 was appropriated out of a loan which was authorized. This sum, however, was found inadequate for carrying out the purposes of the General Assembly on the scale laid down, and future provision will have to be made to complete the work. The architects are Baldwin & Pennington, of Baltimore.

The old State House at Annapolis is historically and architecturally one of the most interesting buildings in America. It was built while Maryland was still a British colony and at a time when socially and intellectually Annapolis was one of the most important towns on this side of the Atlantic. In the old State House the Continental Congress held its sessions in 1783 after the close of the war, and several conventions of national importance were held there. In its original form it was a square structure, with dome. This building was completed in 1774 and was the fourth State House of the colony, that at St. Mary's City being the first. Two preceded this one at Annapolis. About fifty years ago the "octagon room" was added for the State Library, and in 1878 a second addition was made. This annex was not in harmony with the original building. It was unsightly and badly constructed.

In place of these, a structure larger than the old building and of elegant proportions and interior finish has been erected, with commodious legislative chambers, committee rooms and other accessories necessary to the health and comfort of the General Assembly. In the future the State House will be devoted entirely to the uses of the legislative and executive branches of the State government. The old Senate chamber, where Washington resigned his commission, will probably be restored to its former condition. The rotunda and the Old Hall of the House of Delegates will remain intact. The Act of 1902 for the improvement was introduced by Hon. Spencer C. Jones, the Senator for Montgomery County.

The sum of $290,000 was appropriated for the building, and that amount was included in a State loan. The building is of colonial architecture. The material used is brick, with stone trimmings. In 1900 the further sum of $140,000 was appropriated to construct a heating plant in a separate building to heat all the public buildings of the State in Annapolis, and to furnish the State building.

AGE OF THE EARTH.

Some geologists estimate the age of the earth to be 250 millions of years. the minimum being 20 millions of years. According to the archæologists man has inhabited the earth 100,000 years. This is the estimate for parts of Europe where fossil and other remains have been dug up. From discoveries at Trenton, N. J., it is estimated that man lived on the American continent from 5,000 to 20,000 years ago.

SENSE OF SMELL.

That human beings have not entirely lost this animal basis of judgment is proved by the fact we do tell ourselves very much of other people by the nose, often unconsciously. The blind distinguish their friends by the smell of handkerchiefs or coats. Unconscious sensations and unconscious judgments have their field. We know far more by smell than is supposed. Some classes have, apparently, become degraded in senses as well as habits, for their basis of social judgment is below that of the animals. Those who have had their senses keenly educated are accustomed to judge of persons by odors. Australian children possess the doglike sense of trailing people by scent, and experiment reveals that this is to some degree present in everyone.

WILLIAMSBURGH BRIDGE.

The new East River Bridge, connecting the boroughs of Manhattan and Brooklyn, New York, was formally opened December 19, 1903.

The structure is the longest span suspension bridge in the world, with one exception—the Forth cantilever bridge in Scotland (1,710 feet span). It had its beginning in 1892, when a franchise was granted the East River Bridge Company, which was capitalized at $2,500,000, and of which Frederick Uhlman was president. It is about one mile above the Brooklyn bridge and is called the Williamsburgh bridge.

The towers of the Brooklyn Bridge are of stone. Those of the Williamsburgh Bridge are of bolted steel girders. Stone masonry is employed only in the foundations of the towers and the approaches.

The following are some of the leading facts about the new bridge:

Total length	7,200 feet
Length between anchorages	3,455 feet
Main span between towers	1,600 feet
Extreme width	118 feet
Roadways for vehicles (20 feet)	2
Trolley car tracks	4
Elevated tracks	2
Weight of each steel tower	3,048 tons
Weight of steel, Brooklyn approach	6,085 tons
Weight of steel, Manhattan approach	10,550 tons
Total pull of cables	20,050 tons
Wires in the four cables	41,588 tons
Hourly capacity of car lines (persons)	128,000
First work started	October 28, 1896
First wire strung	April 11, 1901
Cost, approximate	$11,000,000

CONVENTION YEAR IN BALTIMORE.

During the year 1903 a number of notable national assemblages gathered in the City of Baltimore. Conspicuous among them were the folowing:

Northeastern Sængerbund, June 14-18.

Grand Lodge, Order of Elks, July 21-23.

Sovereign Grand Lodge Odd Fellows, September 20-25.

League of Municipalities, October 7-9.

The meetings of these organizations were attended by many thousands of people, whose presence and the various events provided for their entertainment made the city lively during the weeks of the early summer and early autumn.

ELECTRICAL ILLUMINATIONS.

Probably the most interesting feature, continuing from the middle of June to the middle of October, was the electrical illumination of the city. This was on a scale comparing well with the illumination of the exhibition buildings, which formed such an attractive feature of the Buffalo Exposition. Myriads of electric bulbs were employed to produce artistic effects, and afford delight to residents as well as visitors.

The illumination was begun for the Saengerfest, and new features were added for each succeeding event. The city authorities were well seconded by individual residents and firms. The lofty dome of the City Hall was beautifully outlined by shining bulbs from the roof to the lantern on top of the spire. Monument Square, on the East front of the Courthouse, was converted into a Court of Honor. White pillars were placed all around the square and from these strings of glowing electr bulbs were carried up and gather high overhead into a central crow The effect was to produce the appea ance of a grand canopy of electri lights, making at night everythi within the sphere of its influence light as the brightest noonday. T design of a waving flag in red, whi and blue lights, shone from the Cou house front. A beautiful crown electric lights capped the Shot Tow at Front and Fayette streets. Sever arches spanned Baltimore street in t blocks extending from the Falls Eutaw street. Nearly every busine house within these bounds was illun nated, and east of the Falls there w also a great display of light. Some the cross streets were included in t scheme.

The arches on Baltimore street we of beautiful design, and at night abu dantly lighted to bring out the shape ness of their proportions. There w a miniature court of honor at Bal more and Hanover streets. Strings lights stretched from corner to corn and from one lofty building to anothe and from side to side of the streets an endless maze. The houses seem to be all linked together by gracef chains of electric bulbs.

The credit for the general desi was due to the City Superintendent Lamps and Lighting, Mr. Robert J. M Cuen, whose plans were admirably i inforced by the enterprising busine houses of the city. "Welcome" in l ters of brilliant light greeted all vi tors. The symbols and devices of ea social and fraternal organization we in turn displayed. During the illun nations the streets were packed wi moving crowds of spectators.

Saengerfest of 1903.

A reception concert and the prize singing competitions of the Saengerfest of 1903, were held in the large drill room of the Fifth Regiment Armory, and attended by from 8,000 to 10,000 people. Among the guests of honor on one of the evenings of the festival was the President of the United States, Theodore Roosevelt; the Governor of Maryland, Hon. John Walter Smith and his staff; the Mayor of Baltimore, Hon. Robert M. McLane.

General interest was centered upon the Kaiser prize song, for which several societies contended. The text and music of this song was selected from a large number of poetic and lyric efforts contributed by the ablest composers in the United States and the German speaking countries of Europe. The words were by Rev. A. W. Hildebrandt, of Constableville, N. Y., and the music by Mr. Louis Victor Saar, New York. Rev. Mr. Hildebrandt ceived a purse of $50 and Mr. Sa one of $150.

The prize for the singing of t song was a silver statue of the Minn singer, a gift from the Emperor W liam of Germany. The prizes we awarded on the night of June 17 at Volksfest at River View Park by Maj Carl Lentz, president of the Northeas ern Saengerbund. The judges of t prize singing were:

Convocation of Elks.

Great good fellowship all around attended the meeting of the Grand Lodge of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, which began its annual session of 1903 in Baltimore at Ford's Opera House on July 21. Mayor McLane and Governor Smith welcomed the order to the city and State. A parade of some 5,000 members was the event of July 22. In this parade every geographical division of the country was represented. There were Elks from the land of the Pilgrim Fathers, from California and the State of Washington, from the Middle West and Northwest, from Dixie, and even from our distant possession in the Philippines. The streets and houses along the line of march were densely packed with people. Confetti was showered upon the masses that thronged the downtown streets at night to see the illumination. "Hello, Bill," was the watchword when the hands of the clocks indicated the hour of 11. The gathering wound up July 23 with a crab feast at Tolchester, where provision was made on gigantic scale to satisfy 10,000 people. Prizes were awarded for decorations, band contests and competitions in features of the parade. John T. Fanning, of Indianapolis, was elected Grand Exalted Ruler, and Cincinnati was selected as the meeting-place of 1904.

SERVIA'S KING AND QUEEN ASSASSINATED.

King Alexander and Queen Draga, of Servia, were assassinated June 11, 1903, in the royal palace at Belgrade by Servian troops under Major Angikovics, who also killed the Queen's brother, Nikodem, and another brother. Others killed Premier Markovitch, the Minister of War, and four officers. It was a military revolution to overthrow the government and it succeeded by this bloody method.

Prince Peter Karageorgevitch was proclaimed King. He was notified at Geneva and denied complicity in the plot.

A new Government was formed and a proclamation was issued to the Servian people calling upon them to stand by the new Government and signed by Jovan Avakumovics, Premier; Ljubomir Kallevics, Foreign Minister; Stojan Protics, Minister of the Interior; Georg Genshics, Minister of Commerce; Gen. Jorvan Alanazkovics, Minister of War; Vojislav Velikovics, Minister of Finance; Col. Alexander Machin, Minister of Public Works; Ljubomir Schiokovics, Minister of Justice.

The people approved the coup d'etat.

The new King, under the title of Peter I., ascended the throne June 25, taking the oath to "Protect the Independence of Servia; the unity of its government; to maintain inviolate the Constitution of the country and govern in conformity with the Constitution and Laws."

The revolution was precipitated by Alexander's high-handedness, under the influence of Queen Draga.

District of Columbia Commissioners.

The local government of the District of Columbia is administered by a board of three commissioners. Two of the commissioners are appointed from civil life by the President of the United States and confirmed by the Senate for three years' terms. The other commissioner is detailed from time to time by the President from the Engineer Corps of the United States Army. The President may also detail three officers of the same corps junior to the Engineer Commissioner, to assist him. The salary of each commissioner is $5,000 a year. The commissioners are in a general way vested with jurisdiction covering all the ordinary functions of municipal government. Congress has, by sundry statutes, empowered the commissioners to make building regulations; plumbing regulations; to make and enforce all such reasonable and usual police regulations as they may deem necessary for the protection of the lives, limbs, health, comfort, and quiet of all persons, and the protection of all property within the District, and other regulations of a municipal nature. Their jurisdiction is over the territory which "was ceded by the State of Maryland to the Congress of the United States for the permanent seat of the government of the United States." The system of government by commissioners is modeled after the system of local government in the counties of Maryland, and was suggested by the Hon. William Pinkney Whyte, of Baltimore, when he was a Senator of the United States from Maryland.

d infectious diseases. The county alth officer has recourse for advice d assistance to the State Board of ealth and to the chemical and bacriological laboratories maintained by e State Board of Health. The State oard of Health cannot exercise any uthority against the will of the local oard of health except in regard to atters affecting more than one local anitary jurisdiction, or upon proof iat the safety of the locality is imeriled by neglect or incompetence of ne local board.

County health officers are local regisrars of vital statistics and must exeute the provisions of the law which orbids the burial of a human body efore a proper certificate of death has een filed and a permit to bury has een granted. For public convenience here are sub-registrars in each elecion district, whose duty is to receive ertificates and issue permits. Wherever a physician was in attendance, the cause of death must be certified by the physician. Penalties are provided for neglect on the part of either physician or undertaker.

Physicians and midwives are required also to report births occurring under their care.

The certificates of birth and death thus coming into the hands of the local registrar are returned each month to the State Board of Health.

Physicians are required to notify the local health officer of each case of infectious disease coming under observation. The local health officer must in turn notify the school boards and must become responsible for restrictive measures, including isolation, disinfection, quarantine, vaccination, &c.

Practicing physicians throughout the State have recourse to the bacteriological laboratory of the State Board of Health for aid in the diagnosis of certain infectious diseases, as typhoid fever, tuberculosis, diptheria and malaria. For this purpose, mailing stations are established at convenient points, enabling physicians to transmit their specimens with speed and safety.

The State Board of Health has also power to inspect all articles of food and drink, to prevent the sale of unsound or diseased meats, to expose fraudulent or adulterated food materials, and to punish wilful violations of the food laws.

Any citizen of Maryland who professes an interest in public health may apply for membership in the Maryland Public Health Association, and, upon approval of the Executive Committee, and favorable vote of the Association, is admitted to full membership.

The purpose of the Association is to support the health authorities of the State, to influence public opinion in sanitary affairs, and to aid public movements of sanitary importance.

The membership at present includes about four hundred persons.

TUBERCULOSIS COMMISSION OF MARYLAND.

George Stewart Brown, Baltimore.
Dr. W. Frank Hines, Chestertown.

The Commission was created by an Act of the Legislature of 1902, approved April 8, 1902, for the purpose of investigating "the prevalence, causes and distribution of human tuberculosis in the State of Maryland, to determine its relations to the public health and welfare, and to devise ways and means for restricting and controlling said disease."

IROQUOIS THEATRE DISASTER, CHICAGO.

Five hundred and ninety-one persons were killed in a fire panic at the Iroquois Theatre, Chicago, about 3.30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, December 30, 1903.

The panic, one of the most awful which ever occurred in a theatre, started while the second act of the play, "Mr. Bluebeard," was being produced. It was the first dramatic production in the building since its erection.

The cause of the fire was the ignition of some scenery from one of the lights in the performance. The theatre had been darkened while members of the chorus were singing "The Moon's Pale Light."

As the fire spread toward the front of the stage the chorus girls fled in terror. "Eddie" Foy, chief comedian of the company, ordered the asbestos curtain lowered, but it stuck when only part of the way down. Had it fully descended the fire would probably have been checked. As it was, a draft was created, which made the flames furious and drew them out toward the main body of the theatre.

In the frightful moments which followed, people perished by the score. To add to the horror, the gas reservoirs exploded.

In the mad rush for the doors, women and children were the chief victims.

Some of the killed were burned to death, many were suffocated by gas and scores were trampled in the terrified plunge for the exits. About 1,300 persons were at the matinee.

Around the exits and fire escapes the killed were piled 12 deep. The battalions of firemen and other rescuers, who rushed to the scene, were moved to tears as they looked upon the mass of victims.

Ghouls began robbing the bodies right and left, and the police, engrossed in the work of rescue, could not restrain them.

Will J. Davis, manager of the theatre, said that had the people remained in their seats not a life would have been lost. The firemen disputed this statement.

Manager Davis said the loss was confined to the furnishings, the scenery and the costumes, besides the personal property of the audience. The building itself was almost uninjured.

This disaster, next to the great Chicago fire, was the greatest catastrophe that ever afflicted that city.

KISCHENEFF MASSACRE OF JEWS.

During the Easter holidays of 1903 the massacre of Jews at Kischeneff, Russia, which shocked the civilized world, took place. At least 60 were killed and over 100 wounded. In addition, a considerable part of the Jewish quarter of the city was wrecked by bloody rioters. Deeds of appalling cruelty were perpetrated.

Large sums for the relief of the surviving victims were raised, most of the contributions coming from the United States.

In behalf of Americans, the B'nai B'rith Order formulated a petition to the Czar and asked the United States Government to transmit it through diplomatic channels. Upon inquiry, the Russian Government declined to receive it on the ground that it would be interference in the internal affairs of the Empire. The petition sets forth that the Jewish victims were attacked from race and religious prejudice; that the local officers were derelict in the performance of their duties; that millions of Jews—Russian subjects—dwelling in southwestern Russia are in constant dread of fresh outbreaks; that the westward migration of Russian Jews, which has proceeded for over 20 years, is being stimulated by these fears, and already that movement has become so great as to overshadow in magnitude the expulsion of the Jews from Spain and to rank with the exodus from Egypt.

After trial, only comparatively short terms of imprisonment were given the persons accused of complicity in the Kischeneff massacre.

Chief Justices.

The list of Chief Justices of the Court of Appeals of Maryland since the date of its organization, in 1778, is as follows:

Benjamin Rumsey	1778—1806	Richard John Bowie	1861—1867
Jeremiah Townley Chase	1806—1824	James Lawrence Bartol	1867—1883
John Buchanan	1824—1845	Richard Henry Alvey	1883—1893
Stephenson Archer	1845—1851	John Mitchell Robinson	1893—1896
John Carroll Le Grand	1851—1861	James McSherry	1896—....

The Court of Appeals as at first organized, in 1778, was composed of five judges, who did no circuit duty. In 1806 it was reorganized upon the plan which now prevails. This system was changed to an independent court in 1851, but it was found to be unsatisfactory, and the old method of the judges doing circuit duty was resumed in 1867.

THE JUDICIARY SYSTEM.

The judges of the courts in Maryland, except the Orphans' Court, are elected for 15 years. They are required to be not less than 30 years of age at the time of election, and are re-eligible until the age of 70 years, but not thereafter, though the Legislature, by joint resolution, may enable any judge already in office to fill out an unexpired term beyond the limit. The counties are grouped into seven circuits, and the City of Baltimore is designated as the eighth circuit. A chief judge and two associate judges are provided for each circuit in the counties. The chief judges of the county circuits and a judge specially elected in Baltimore City constitute the Court of Appeals. The Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, designates the member of the Court of Appeals who shall be the chief or presiding judge of that tribunal. A court is required to be held in each county of the State, to be styled the Circuit Court for the county in which it may be held. No two of the associate judges shall reside in the same county. Baltimore City, the eighth Judicial Circuit, is provided with a Supreme Bench—a chief and eight associate judges, in addition to one associate judge of the Court of Appeals. The total number of judges is 31.

The salaries of judges are as follows: Court of Appeals, $4,500; Associate of the Circuit Courts, $3,600; Supreme Bench, Baltimore City, $5,000, of which $4,500 is paid by the State and $500 by the City of Baltimore.

COURT FOR JUVENILES.

The General Assembly of 1902 passed an Act, Ch. 611, for the appointment by the Governor of an additional Justice of the Peace in Baltimore City, to be known as "The Magistrate for Juvenile Causes," who shall be a member of the bar of the city, and be paid $2,100 a year by the city. To this magistrate is committed "all cases of trial or commitment for trial, or of commitment to any reformatory or other institution of all minors under 16 years of age, in all cases where jurisdiction thereof is given by law to any justice of the peace in Baltimore City." In commitments to reformatory institutions the wishes of parents and guardians are to have due consideration.

Probation officers, persons of either sex, appointed by the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City, and serving without pay, are charged with the duty of investigating cases of crime or incorrigible and vicious conduct. The probation officer is required to be present at the hearing of the case, to represent the interests of the child; to furnish the court with such information and assistance as may be required, and, in the discretion of the court, to have control and custody of the child before and after trial. The court, either before trial, with the consent of the child or its parents or guardian, or after conviction, may, in its discretion, suspend further proceedings during the good behavior of the child, and place it in the care of any of the probation officers for such time and upon such conditions as may seem proper. The probation officer may bring such child before the court at any time during the period for which it was committed to his care.

May 31, 1902, Governor Smith appointed Mr. Charles W. Heuisler, of the Bar of Baltimore City, as the additional Justice of the Peace for the Court of Juveniles, and the provisions of the Act were carried into effect.

LONGEVITY OF ANIMALS.

Tortoises, pike and carp have been known to live 150 years; eagles, ravens and parrots 100 years and over. The elephant lives from 100 to 150 years; the rhinoceros 70 years; the camel 50 to 80 years; the horse 20 to 40 years; the ox 15 to 20 years; the sheep 12 years; lion 20 to 40 years; dog 12 to 34 years; cat 10 to 18 years. From the number of layers of whalebone found in the jaws of certain large whales, it is computed that the longevity of this animal is at least 400 years.

METHOD OF APPOINTING SUPERVISORS.

Three supervisors of elections are appointed for each county of Maryland and for the City of Baltimore every two years by the Governor, "by and with the advice and consent of the Senate," if in session, and if not in session then by the Governor alone.

Four names are required to be submitted to the Executive for each county and the City of Baltimore, by the State Central Committees representing each of the two leading political parties of the State, from each of which lists the Governor will select one person to be a supervisor for each party. In case all of the four persons first named by a party committee are deemed "unfit" by the Governor or "incompetent" for the position, he is empowered to file a written statement to that effect with the Secretary of State, and then call upon the committee for another list of six names. From these and the original list he shall make the appointment. The third supervisor he selects without restriction, except as to locality.

The pay of supervisors in Baltimore City is $1,500 a year for each, and in the counties from $100 to $150 a year. Each board of supervisors in the counties may have clerks, with the consent of the County Commissioners, who fix the pay. In Baltimore City a clerk at a salary of $2,000 a year and a messenger at $800 a year are authorized, with such other temporary assistance as the supervisors may consider necessary from time to time, within the limit of $2,000 a year. The supervisors' office is in the Courthouse.

UNDERGROUND WATER.

The earth contains an abundance of water, even in places like some of our great Western plateaus, where the surface is comparatively arid. The greatest depth at which underground water can exist is estimated to be about six miles. The amount of water in the earth's crust is reckoned at nearly one-third of that contained in the oceans, so that it would cover the whole surface of the globe to a depth of from 3,000 to 3,500 feet. The waters und ground flow horizontally after sinki below the unsaturated zone of t rocks, but in the sands of the Dak formation, which supply remarka artesian wells, the motion does not ceed one or two miles a year. The derflow toward the sea beneath great plains may sometimes take form of broad streams.

The city of Baltimore is not in Baltimore county. The city is a separate political sub-division of Maryland. In 1796, the General Assembly of the State passed an Act "to erect Baltimore, town in Baltimore county, into a city, and to incorporate the inhabitants thereof." But the city remained a part of the county until the adoption of the State Constitution of 1851, when, by its provisions, the city and county were made entirely separate.

PAPAL SUCCESSION.

Pope Leo XIII. (Giacchino Pecci) died at the Vatican in Rome, July 20, 1903, after 16 days illness, aged 93 years, 4 months and 18 days. He was born at Carpineto, Italy—then in the States of the Church—March 2, 1810. He was elected Pontiff February 20, 1878. The length of his Pontificate was 25 years, 5 months, which was a longer reign than any of his predecessors except Pius IX, who was Pope for 32 years.

On the 4th of August following the death of Leo XIII, Cardinal Giuseppe Sarto, Patriarch of Venice, was elected Pope by the Conclave of Cardinals assembled in Rome, and took the name of Pius X. Sixty-two Cardinals entered the Conclave, with their attendants, July 31. The first ballot was taken Saturday, August 1, when it was stated one vote was cast for Cardinal Sarto, 24 for Cardinal Rampolla and 15 for Cardinal Serafino Vannutelli, with others scattering. The final result was reached after three days of unsuccessful balloting. Pius X was crowned in St. Peter's, Rome, Sunday, August 9.

The Sacred College is composed of 64 cardinals of three orders—cardinal bishop, cardinal priest and cardinal deacons. The order of cardinal bishop is complete, two of these being brothers, Serafino and Vincent Vannutelli. The others are Oreglia Mocenni Agliardi and Satolli. The college when complete consists of 70 members 6 cardinal bishops, 50 cardinal priests and 14 cardinal deacons. Only two cardinals were absent from the conclave, Celesta, of Palermo, who was then 90 years old and sick, and Moran, of New South Wales, who was unable to reach Rome in time. James Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop of Baltimore, reached Rome in time to enter the conclave. He has the distinction of being the first, and only American cardinal, to take part in the election of a Supreme Pontiff.

The number of Popes from St. Peter to Pius X, inclusively, according to the generally accepted list, has been 264, counting only those whose title has not been disputed. Of this number 82 are venerated as saints, 33 were martyred, 104 were Romans, 104 natives of other parts of Italy, 15 Frenchmen, 9 Greeks, 7 Germans, 5 Asiatics, 3 Africans, 3 Spaniards, 2 Damatians, 1 Hebrew, 1 Thracian, 1 Candiot, 1 Hollander, 1 Portuguese, 1 Englishman and some whose nationality is not recorded.

If you live in the country, or at a distance from the Bank instead of a personal visit, it is a simple matter to drop a letter in the Postoffice, the United States Government delivers it safely to us, and we do the rest: entering the contents to your credit, keeping it safely, having it ready when you want it. In the meantime it is earning interest for you, day by day, and even while you sleep.
